All classes practice sessions and promotion tests conducted by your Instructor or Master are supervised with reasonable care taken to prevent any injury and to minimize accidents. However, because of the strenuous nature of martial arts and combative activities, no one can positively assure the student, member, or instructor that injury will not result during class, practice sessions and promotion tests.

Therefore I, the above mentioned student, do hereby for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns waive, release, and forever discharge any and all rights and claims whatsoever for damages which I may have, or shall hereinafter accrue to me, against my Instructor, Master, or to other members, for any and all damages which may be sustained and suffered by me in connection with my association or entry in any practice, class, contest, or athletic events, or which may arise out of my traveling to, participating in, or returning from such endeavor.

The student agrees to keep and obey all rules and regulations now in force or in the future prescribed by the martial art or its associated martial arts, for the use of martial arts and the equipment and facilities therein including rules with respect to lockers, uniforms, and personal hygiene and the martial art reserves the right to revoke this membership if student fails to keep and obey any of such rules and regulation or for reasons of nuisance, disturbance of other students, moral turpitude, or fraud. Positively no refunds on any amount paid for registration fee, tuition fee, uniforms, or any other deposits made.
